Second place in the Mixed Board-a-Match teams went to this squad. Seated, Jan Martel, Chip Martel and JoAnna Stansby; standing, Peter Weichsel, Rose Meltzer and Lew Stansby.

They were second in the Spingold: seated, Mark Feldman, Billy Cohen and Ron Smith; standing, Gavin Wolpert, Warren Spector and Vincent Demuy.

Robinson squad wins Mixed Board-a-Match

With a round to go in the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams, the Steve Robinson team was in second place, not quite a board behind the leaders, the Rose Meltzer squad. On the final round, Meltzer scored only a half while Robinson and company came through with 1.5 to eke out a victory.

The leaders ended with 34.75 to 34.68 for the runners-up.

Robinson's teammates were Lynn Deas, Beth Palmer, Bill Pettis, Bill Pollack and Rozanne Pollack.

Meltzer played with Peter Weichsel, Jan and Chip Martel and JoAnna and Lew Stansby.

It was the first victory in the event for Robinson. His teammates have all won the title previously.

First place in the NABC+ Fast Open Pairs went to Peter Weiden and Rick Zucker.

Zucker, Weiden speed to win in Fast Pairs

The way Rick Zucker and Peter Weiden see it, the NABC+ Fast Open Pairs is ideal for them – they don't have time to dwell on their mistakes.

Judging by their huge score in the second final session, they didn't make many mistakes. They posted a 66.65% game to win by nearly 56 matchpoints (38 top).

Zucker is a professional player who lives in Dobbs Ferry, about 30 miles from New York City. Weiden, of Manhattan, is a psychiatrist doing schizophrenia research.

In the fast game, players have only 11 minutes per rounds, compared to the normal 15. Says Zucker: "You don't have time to think so much, which causes mistakes."

The win was Weiden's first North American title. Zucker previously won the North American Pairs and the North American Swiss Teams.

No letup for Nickell, 2004 Spingold champs

If anyone thought the Nick Nickell squad might have a letdown after the amazing comeback on Saturday night in the Spingold Knockout Teams semifinal, they don't know the team that is arguably one of the best in bridge history.

Yes, some members of the Nickell team might have been too wired to sleep well after rallying from 71 IMPs down with 16 boards to play against the George Jacobs team, winning the final set 84-2. But Nickell and company had plenty left against the upstart Warren Spector squad, defeating them 150-106 in the Spingold final.

Spingold

The Spingold champions are Nickell, Richard Freeman, Jeff Meckstroth, Eric Rodwell, Bob Hamman and Paul Soloway. Hamman was winning his 13th Spingold, the most in the history of the event. Meckstroth and Rodwell now have won it 10 times each.

The runners-up, who started the event seeded No. 28, included Spector, former ACBL King of Bridge who has played very little bridge over the past 28 years; Mark Feldman, Billy Cohen, Ron Smith, and 21-year-old Canadians Gavin Wolpert and Vincent Demuy.

Asked if this victory was the best of his eight Spingold wins, Nickell said, "They're all very, very good. This one might have been the most surprising."

Said Meckstroth of the semifinal comeback: "That was amazing."

Against Spector, who had mowed down one top team after another to get to the championship round, Nickell started strong, winning the first quarter 42-13. They increased the lead to 79-41 at the half. Spector mounted a mild rally with a 30-20 third quarter, but Nickell was not to be denied, winning the final set 51-35.

During the day Sunday, Hamman's wife, Petra, complained to him about a series of unlucky deals she and her teammates had encountered in the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams. Said Bob to Petra: "There's only so much luck per family, and I've used all of ours this week."

Junior team trials picks young pairs

The complicated process of selecting two U.S. teams for the World Junior Team Championships next year in Australia advanced a step when Andrew Hurd-Tim Crank and Noble Shore-Charlie Garrod finished first and second, respectively, in the Junior Team Trials.

The finish guarantees that they will be on one of the two U.S. teams, but one of the pairs could be selected to play with the first team – John Hurd, Joel Wooldridge, Joe Grue and John Kranyak. If so, the second team will be the top two remaining pairs from the trials. In third place were Brad Campbell of Smyrna GA and Jason Feldman of Champaign IL.

Should the first team select a pair not in the top three of the trials, Hurd-Crank and Shore-Garrod will be the second team. They will select a captain and choose a third pair from among the competitors in the four-session event which concluded Sunday. Team lineups will be announced at a later time.

The event started with 22 pairs in a qualifying stage and 16 pairs in a two session final. It was conducted under the auspices of the United States Bridge Federation.

Hurd, 22, of Charleston SC, just graduated from the College of Charleston with a degree in business administration. Crank, 23, of Wheaton MD, is a part-time tournament director.

Shore, 23, lives in Charlottesville VA and is a grad student in computer science at the University of Virginia. Garrod, 25, is also a grad student in computer science, at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh.

Caddies offer different view

Many of the caddies who read the Sunday article by fellow caddy Meg Massie said after reading it that they don't agree with her point of view.

Massie's article complained about low pay for caddies — and she encouraged players to tip the caddies.

Said Tony Ames, a caddy from Minneapolis: "Caddying is a vacation. Meg is not speaking for everyone. We don't need tips. How many people can go on vacation and come back with more money than they left with?"

Robin Powers, of Buffalo NY, agreed with Ames, and she added: "Most of the caddies feel as we do."

Good attendance

The total table count for New York 2004 was 13,351, an excellent total. It is well beyond the pre-tournament estimates.
