Winners of the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams: (front) Cheri Bjerkan (captain), Lynn Deas; (back) Stasha Cohen, Pam Wittes, Renee Mancuso and Beth Palmer.

Bjerkan victor in Wagar Women's KO

It was close all the way, but the team captained by Cheri Bjerkan gained a major swing four boards from the end to win the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams. Bjerkan (Stasha Cohen, Pam Wittes, Renee Mancuso, Beth Palmer, Lynn Deas) defeated Kent Massie, npc (Kathie Wei-Sender, Betty Ann Kennedy, Jill Levin, Sue Picus, Janice Seamon-Molson, Tobi Sokolow), 140-126.

Bjerkan had a 32-IMP lead at the halfway point, but Wei-Sender cut the margin to 13 in a strong third quarter. Wei-Sender actually led briefly in the final quarter, but the 13 IMPs Bjerkan earned on Board 61 settled the match.

Every member of the winning team but one has won at least one world championship. The sixth player, Mancuso, has come close – she has a world silver medal.

Actually the same is true of the losers. All but Seamon-Molson own gold medals, and Seamon-Molson has a silver.

The swing on the key hand came about because Deas decided to open a 10-point hand in first posi-

Both Mini-Spingold finals today

It's practically an all-California final in the 0-5000 Mini-Spingold Knockout Teams today. John Hodges, Lynn Johannesen, Dale Johannesen and Franklin Lowenthal, all Californians, will oppose Californians Harold Einberg, Michael Mikyska, Alan Myerson and James Glickman plus David Sokolow of Texas.

A Connecticut team – Maeve Mahon, John Segal, Russell Friedman and Allan Wolf – will take on an international squad in the 0-1500 Mini-Spingold final. On the other team are Robert Hollow and Motaz Farag of Ontario, Gabriel Tawil of Wisconsin and Theo Lichtenstein of Florida.

Attendance to date

Jacobs vs. Swedes, Cayne vs. Moss

The semifinal round of the Spingold Knockouts will feature an international slugfest. The #1 seed captained by George Jacobs (playing with Ralph Katz and Italians Alfredo Versace, Lorenzo Lauria, Norberto Bocchi and Giorgio Duboin) will battle the four-handed Swedish squad of Claus Christiansen, Magnus Eriksson, Lars Munlsgaard and Ulf Nilsson.

In the other match, the team captained by Jimmy Cayne (which includes Robert Levin, Steve Weinstein, and Norwegians Geir Helgemo, Jon Engel Furness and Tor Helness) faces Mike Moss, Allan Graves, Bryan Maksymetz and Austrian Martin Schifko.

Winners of the National IMP Pairs Ai-Tai Lo and Alan Schwartz.

Lo, Schwartz grab IMP Pairs crown

Ai-Tai Lo and Alan Schwartz each won their first NABC title yesterday by topping the 182-pair field in the final of the National IMP Pairs.

Lo, of Reston VA, and Schwartz, of Fairfax VA, posted a final score of 93.34 IMPs to edge out William Ehlers of West Orange NJ and District 25 ACBL Board member Richard DeMartino, of Riverside CT, who finished with 89.67.

In third with 80.30 IMPs were Deborah and Samuel Cohen of Lisle IL.

This is the first nationally-rated win for both Lo, a software engineer and Schwartz, a meteorologist. The IMP Pairs is a four-session event.

Ehlers and DeMartino were leading until the final round. DeMartino reported that they failed to defeat a tenuous 3NT contract on the final deal of the evening, which allowed Lo and Schwartz to take the lead.

The leaders scored well on this deal from the second final session:

Caddies, please! The caddies of the Washington DC NABC.

Today is Caddy Appreciation Day

Good caddies are like good waiters — they take care of everything that needs to be done without the people sitting at the table noticing. Today, however, all players are encouraged to take notice of the great caddies we have here in Washington. The NABC caddy corps is always first-rate and since today is Caddy Appreciation Day, be sure to thank the caddies for the super job they do.

While anyone, of course, can be a caddy, the overwhelming majority of them are teenagers and college-aged students — especially at the NABCs. Most caddies belong to families who travel frequently to bridge tournaments, and many of them play the game as well. In fact, there was a special tournament for caddies held late Friday night (see

Bridge needs young people to thrive

The future of our game depends on developing a sustainable systematic way to bring youth into the game. Not just a few dozen here and there, but thousands upon thousands nationwide year after year.

Why? Ninety-six percent of our present members are over 45, and the demographics ensure that the situation will worsen for decades. Existing school programs led by volunteer teachers cannot begin to produce enough new players to offset these dramatic losses.

Research done by BridgeAtSchools indicates that a new school bridge model is needed to attract large numbers of school and to enable them to embrace and sustain a bridge program. The heart of the solution is a curriculum that can be taught by existing teachers who may not necessarily be bridge teachers. The need to leverage school personnel is paramount since more and more schools are limiting the use of non-school personnel and since there aren't enough bridge teachers in our membership base to meet the expected demand.

Another key component of the program features inter-school competitions at regular tournament sites. Such program often captivate and sustain youth interest.

We bridge players know that our game develops math, critical thing and social skills. However, school administrators and parents need stronger evidence before they will endorse it. As a bridge community, we need to prove the educational value of bridge to create new demand for our product.

Once there is a demand for our product, corporate and government grants will provide additional resources to introduce it into more schools. To that, BridgeAtSchools is launching research pilot programs to measure the game's impact on a variety of educational outcomes. It is also developing an educational curriculum explicitly aligned to the national standards for math, critical thinking and social skills.

BridgeAtSchools does its own fund-raising and has been actively writing grants to private foundations and soliciting corporate support. However, these efforts may not come to fruition for some time. In order to continue this program which is well on its way to becoming the premier model for school bridge programs in North America, support from individuals is needed too.

With your donation, you will not only be ensuring that the game of bridge continues for generations to come but you will be solving one of our many societal problems by improving education, reinforcing youth's self-image and confidence, promoting social harmony.

When you think about what bridge has done for you personally and others that play the game, how can you not want the youth of North America to reap the benefits of this game we all love?

Montreal world and regional information

The deadline for applying for entry in events at the 2002 World Bridge Championships in Montreal has passed, but on-site registration is possible.

The tournament is set for Aug. 16 to 31. Alongside the world championships, the 18-day Can-Am Regional will award World Bridge Federation masterpoints in some events for overall placement.

The registration deadline for the world championships was last month, but ACBL President George Retek said some on-site registration for major events will take place. He suggests contacting tournament chairman Tibor Bertalan for more information. Bertalan can be contacted at (514) 487-9552.

Pre-registration is not required for the regional, which begins Aug. 16 and ends Sept. 2.

The schedule of the world championships and travel-hotel information can be found in the May issue of The Bridge Bulletin, page 66. Information about the regional is on page 7 in the June issue. The tournament includes a full Intermediate/Newcomer schedule.

Both tournaments will feature valuable registration gifts and section-top prizes.

The world championships will feature a full schedule: Mixed Pairs, Zonal Mixed Pairs, Rosenblum (open) and McConnell (women's) teams, Open Pairs, Zonal Pairs, IMP Pairs, Senior Teams, Senior Pairs, Junior Pairs, Junior Teams and a Junior individual. Juniors in Junior world championship event play at no charge.

Air Canada, official airline of the world championships, is offering discounts for travel within North America. Quote convention code N CV 664436.

Military Day

Today is Military Recognition Day. All the military registrants may pick up their name badge with service insignia to wear today. The badge allows the wearer free entry to the special reception for military players between sessions in Room 9021.

Military awards will be announced in Hall C Sunday at 10:30 am.

♣ 9 8	♣ K 2

Contract: 6NT. Opening lead: ♠10. Plan the play. Kantar's answer: With nine tricks in the black suits plus the ♥A K for eleven, you need one more trick. You have two chances: (1) lead up to the ♦K, which is 50%, or (2) play the ♥J, and if covered, re-enter the dummy with a spade and lead a heart to the 9, a play which requires East to have both the ♥Q and the ♥10, approximately a 25% chance. Guess what you should do.

Montreal Quiz 8 winners

Only three correct answers to Quiz #8 were received in the Press-Bulletin office – June Bare, Pete Hughes and Curtis Bare. All winners who have not yet picked up their prize may do so by visiting the Press-Bulletin office in the Taft Room on the mezzanine level.

How things change!

From the Daily Bulletin at the 1965 Fall NABC in San Francisco:

Taboos: The Hilton requests – and your Good Will Committee urgently seconds – that women not wear slacks in the hotel and that men wear coats and ties in the evening. If you are planning to win, it is doubly necessary to observe these dress regulations. The ACBL Bulletin is no longer permitted to publish the pictures of slacks-wearing women and coat-or-tieless men.

Toilet humor

By Barry Rigal

During the Spingold match between the teams captained by Richard Schwartz and Claus Christensen, Ulf Nilssen of the Christensen team had a problem – he had to decide how to play A-J-x opposite K-10-x. After a little thought he announced that he had to visit the men's room. Richard Schwartz asked him if could finish the hand first, but Mike Becker said that was OK – he had to go, too.

While he was in the men's room, Nilssen was still thinking about his problem. Suddenly he said to Becker, "I'm playing you for the queen."

"Then you made the hand," said Becker. "I had the queen."

When they returned to the table, they picked up their cards and put them back in the board without saying a word. Schwartz and the dummy wondered what was going on. "He made the hand in the bathroom," said Becker.

11 minutes a round for Fast Open Pairs

The Fast Open Pairs consists of two qualifying sessions today and two final sessions Sunday. Sessions begin at 1 and 4:30 p.m. Only 11 minutes are allowed for each two-board round.

Last year's winners, Jim Robison and Mark Itabashi, grabbed all the matchpoints on this deal from the second final session:

Dir: West ♠ A 7 6 5
 Vul: None ♥ K 7 6 4 3

West	North	East	South
Robison		Itabashi
1♣	Pass	1♠	3♣
Dbl	Pass	3♥	Pass
4♥	Dbl	All Pass

South led the ♣10 and Itabashi inserted the jack. He then made the key play of the ♠K from dummy. North won the ♠A and switched to a trump but Itabashi was in control.

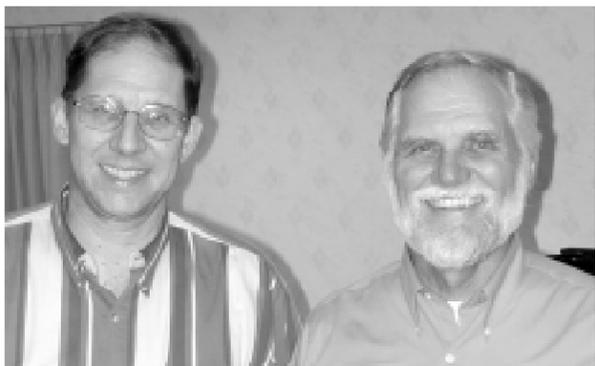

He won dummy's ♥5 and led a diamond, playing his king when North followed with the 9.

He ruffed a spade and led the ♣A, ruffed by North and overruffed by Itabashi. Another spade ruff established the suit. Itabashi played the ♣K, discarding a diamond when North ruffed.

North was helpless. He could cash the ♦A but that would set up dummy's queen. When North continued with a heart, Itabashi took the marked finesse, cashed the ♥A and played spades, giving up a diamond at the end for plus 590 and a cold top.

Previous winners:

2000 Chris Willenken, Aaron Silverstein
 2001 Jim Robison, Mark Itabashi

Second in the National 199er Pairs were Robert Sturm and Thomas Marcelino.

Totally hoodwinked!

Once in a great while it's possible to be in a grand slam off a cashable ace and know there's an excellent chance the opponents won't cash it. Watch Roger Lord and Peggy Kaplan at work on this deal from a Round of 32 match in the Spingold. In a later match the Lord team eventually lost to the George Jacobs team in a very tight match where correctly guessing the location of a queen would have meant winning instead of losing. Lord's teammates were Hideki Tokano from Tokyo, Japan, and Todoshi Teramoto of Yokohama, Japan.

(1) Exclusion Blackwood for key cards in suits other than spades with hearts as trumps.

(2) Two key cards.

Opening lead: ♥2.

West knew partner held the ♥A and the ♦A. He also knew that if a spade was not led, he could sluff his spade on the ♦A.

North was certain his ♠A would be ruffed, and he did not want to risk setting up dummy's second spade honors. When North-South discovered that declarer held a losing spade, they assumed that East had misdescribed West's 4♠ bid, and they requested a ruling.

After investigating, the directors realized that West's bid actually did show a spade void, and West's intention was to hoodwink the opening leader. The table result stood, of course.

Kaplan pointed out that it was difficult to imagine a player whose team was leading by 30 IMPs risking an adverse swing. Lord, however, looked at the situation differently. Not only did he believe the swindle would be most likely to work - he also feared that the opponents at the other table might gamble a grand slam in order to recoup some IMPs.

The swing was 13 IMPs - the opponents stopped in a small slam at the other table.

New Life Master

Joon Pakh of Berkeley CA needed only .01 of a point when he sat down in yesterday's Open Pairs event. He and Brad Mampe of Brighton MA earned a section award and Pakh became a Life Master.

Adequate trump support

Have you ever bid a suit naturally and have dummy table eight-card support? It happened yesterday in the first final session of the National IMP Pairs.

North opened 1♣ and John Jones decided to overcall 1♠ even though he had only four cards in the suit. South made a negative double. Mark Bartusek had a clear raise to 4♠ of course. This was doubled by North. Imagine everyone's disbelief and awe as they watched Bartusek put eight spades on the table as dummy.

Playing a 1-0 trump fit

By Barry Rigal

Mel and Janet Colchamiro needed to create a swing as the final set of their Spingold round-of-16 match against the Bernstein team drew to a close. They got one - but it wasn't enough.

This deal was played against Cindy and Bob Bernstein. Mel's 4♥ was natural and to play and a little imaginative. He managed to score the ♠A and a diamond ruff(!) to go down eight tricks or minus 400.

That was a valuable 11-IMP gain (their teammates were plus 980 in 6♥), but it wasn't enough.

Attention new LMs

Mari Retek, wife of ACBL President George Retek, invites all players who become Life Masters at this tournament to be her guest some evening in the President's Suite, Room 7340. The invitation includes all those who already have been recognized in the Daily Bulletin as well as those who become Life Masters later in the tournament.

Baron Barclay bookstore hours

The Baron Barclay book desk will be open the normal hours today (Saturday): 11 a.m.-1 p.m.; 4:30-5:30 p.m.; 6:30-7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m.-midnight.

On Sunday the store - located outside Exhibit Hall C on the lower level - will be open 9:30-10:30 a.m. only.

Baron Barclay thanks you for stopping by - see you in Montreal and Phoenix.

Cell phones: turn 'em off

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or the event.

The attitude of the user is important. An immediate shut-off followed by an apology will usually earn only a warning. However, a violation of the intent of the regulation (answering) will usually result in a penalty.

Semifinal slams in Wagar Knockouts

By Barry Rigal

This slam deal is from the semifinal round of the Wagar Women's Knockouts. Sue Picus was North, Jill Levin South.

Dlr: West ♠ A K Q J

♥ A Q 7
♦ A Q 4 3
♣ A 4

North Picus	South Levin
1♦	1♠
4♥	4NT
5♠	6♣

After Picus's aggressive 4♥ jump, Levin was always going to bid slam, but a 3♣ jump would have done the trick too.

In 6♣, Levin took a long time before playing to the trump lead. Then she played three rounds of clubs, ruffing with the 7, drew a second trump, ruffed a club with the 9 and exited with the ♦Q from hand. The defense could take this, but Levin could now simply ruff a heart in dummy to draw the last trump. This was a 13-IMP pickup since the opponents played game at the other table.

The following hands were also from the semifinal session of the Wagar:

♠ A J	♠ Q
♥ J 7 6	♥ A K Q 3
♦ K Q 6 4 2	♦ 9 8 5
♣ K 10 5	♣ A Q J 8 3

One room played in 6♦, down one when the ♦A appeared singleton onside.

In the other room, the auction was 1♣-2♦; 3♣-4♣ (Roman Key Card)-4NT (two plus the queen); 6♣.

6♣ is better than 6♦ mainly because they might take the ♦A to let you fall back on the spade finesse. Plus, some 4-1 splits give you extra chances. The actual diamond lie is the only one to make 6♣ a shoe-in and 6♦ no play!

Strip play works

All Pass

He reached 5♣ and West slipped fractionally by leading the ♥A-K. Zia ruffed, and instead of relying on the double finesse in spades, he decided to strip the diamond suit just in case something happened. Did it ever!

On the second diamond West produced the queen, then Zia ruffed the third diamond high as West discarded. Since East was virtually marked with a 2-4-6-1 shape, Zia decided that the right play was to lead to the ♠Q, cash the ♠A and exit with a club. It worked. East had ♠J-x and a singleton club and was endplayed to concede the ruff and discard. This was worth a game swing in a Spingold match.

(1) Preemptive.

The facts: 5♣ doubled went down three, +800 for N/S. After play concluded, 3♦ was explained as a mini-splinter with three-card support, but the N/S convention cards were not marked as such. East understood 4NT to show clubs and a red suit and still chose to bid 5♣. The director allowed the table result to stand.

The appeal: E/W appealed the director's ruling. When questioned about South's 3♦ bid, North said, "I know it is something, give me a minute." North then took a minute and said, "I think he has not many spades, lots of diamonds, and not many points." E/W believed that the misinformation led to their bad result. The committee examined the N/S convention card which was marked weak jump shifts to two-level only. South intended 3♦ as a mini-splinter which was not marked on the card, but was their agreement. East stated during questioning that she knew West had a red suit when he bid 4NT, but "he is the pro, I'm the client. I would rather he play a six-two fit than me play a four-four. I don't want to declare."

The committee decision: The committee decided that South had not misbid and that North had given misinformation. By East's own statement the misinformation did not lead directly to the bad result because East was never going to bid 5♦ or 5♥. Since East's statement severed the connection between the misinformation and the result, the committee allowed the table result to stand. The appeal was judged to have merit because of the misinformation. N/S were instructed to properly fill out their convention card.

All Pass

Chazen was playing in a 5-2 fit instead of the 6-3 club fit, but you know how it is - you have to make do.

When he saw the opening lead of the ♥2, whistles and bells started going off in his head. He recognized immediately what was going on -- West was trying to reach partner to get a club ruff. He happily called for the ♥J which won the trick. But he was still far, far from home. He led a low spade to West's 10 and ruffed West's return of the ♥A. He led a club, and West of course resisted the temptation to ruff. Chazen called for the jack, and East went into thought for several minutes. He could see pluses and minuses for taking or refusing the trick. Finally he took his queen.

Back came a diamond to the ace. Chazen had to leave trumps alone, so he led another club. This time West ruffed and returned a diamond to Chazen's king.

It was all over. Chazen cashed the ♠A, dropping the king, then the ♠Q, dropping the jack. He overtook the ♣K with the ace and took the rest of the tricks, making an unlikely game in spades.

NABCs now are true international events

Not too many years ago just about nobody but North Americans played in North American Championships. That sure has changed. Now a large percentage of the top Spingold teams are international. Altogether at least 24 nations are represented here.

Four countries - Croatia, Korea, Indonesia and Finland - have seldom or never had representatives here before.

Other nations are regulars - countries like Australia, Sweden, Norway, the Netherlands, France, Italy, Poland, Russia, Japan, England, Scotland and Ireland.

Also here are players from Austria, Iceland, Denmark and Brazil. And of course there are the four ACBL nations - the United States, Canada, Mexico and Bermuda.

tomorrow's Daily Bulletin for the winners).

Lindsay Nathan, 20, is a student at the University of California, Berkeley, majoring in political science and art history. She is a National Head Caddy and is a 12-year veteran of the job.

"I began caddying when I was eight, although I used to go to tournaments with my family before I was old enough to work. This is only my third NABC, but I've worked lots of sectionals and regionals," she said.

Bridge has been a big part of Nathan's family life — in fact, her parents met while playing bridge. In addition to her mom and dad (Cathy and Marc Nathan of Thousand Oaks CA), her brother, Kevin Bathurst, also plays.

Why does Nathan continue to caddy?

"It's a lot of fun. I've met a lot of really cool people from all over the world. Also, I've made a lot of friends over the years and I enjoy keeping up with them."

Another National Head Caddy is Christophe Sherwyn, 19, of Corpus Christi TX. Sherwyn, a student at Texas A&M University majoring in computer science, is nicknamed "Saudi" by the other caddies because he lived in Saudi Arabia for 12 years.

"My father is a petroleum engineer and we used to live in Dhahran," he said.

Sherwyn's family was also very involved in bridge.

"My parents have played for a long time. I finally had to learn the game to survive at home! It was all they talked about at dinner time."

Sherwyn began caddying in Reno five years ago. The Washington NABC is his sixth national to caddy.

One great way to show the caddies how much we respect the great job they do is to say, "Caddy, please" when summoning a caddy to the table.

Goodwill message

We'd like to think that everybody we meet at this NABC will add to our enjoyment. Realistically, of course, we know that won't happen.

The key is our response. Continue to be polite, friendly — whether it's an opponent or your partner. It's called rubbing out a problem with kindness.

United States Junior Bridge Championship (Junior Team Trials)

Game time: 11 a.m. today

The two top finishers will represent the United States in the World Youth Team Championships next summer. The event probably will take place in Beijing, China, but final arrangements have not yet been made.

Included in the field are five of the six defending world champions. The team consists of Joe Grue, John Hurd, John Kranyak, Kent Mignocchi and Joel Wooldridge — the defenders — plus Kevin Bathurst.

Other teams:

Paul Bethé, Brad Campbell, Jason Feldman, Marc Glickman.

Jared Fournier, Jeremy Fournier, Mark Rice, John Rice.

Darius Jackson, Josh Kvidt, Ryan Humphreys, Jonathan Ohlinger.

Sam Katz, Kevin Epley, Matt Meckstroth, Rob Meckstroth.

Tim Crank, Chris Davis, Josh Donn, Scotty Waldron.

Meredith Beck, List Burton, Robert Glickman, Lindsay Pearlman, Xing Yuan.

Noble Shore and James Krot have a team, but their teammates' names were not available.

George Mann and Alex Phillips are available for a team, and the committee is working on finding teammates for them.

Worth noticing is the fact that the field includes four sets of brothers — the Fourniers, the Glickmans, the Rices and the Meckstroths.

Spingold

The Jacobs team advanced to the semifinals by putting an end to the amazing run of the Bernstein squad, 152-94.

Christiansen's quarterfinal round against Schwartz was close, but Christiansen — who led the entire match — held off the #4 seed to win the match 131-122.

The other two contests in the quarterfinals saw the victors double the scores of the losers. Cayne crushed the O'Rourke team 163-81 in three quarters of play, while Moss lapped the Robinson squad 204-102.

The second half of the Spingold matches will be presented on vugraph in the Cotillion Ballroom on the mezzanine level.

Smoking restrictions

Players are advised that smoking is prohibited everywhere inside the Marriott Wardman Park except for the lobby level bar area. Players wishing to smoke must do so outside.

In the exhibition halls (downstairs), players may use the doors to the loading dock at the end of Exhibition Hall C. In the ballroom area (lobby level), players may use the doors to the parking area across from the tournament registration desk. (Smoking in the foyer beyond these doors is also prohibited.)

Penalties will be assessed for players smoking indoors.

Runners-up in the National IMP Pairs: William Ehlers and Richard DeMartino.

West led the ♠K against Schwartz's 3♥. Declarer covered with the ace and East ruffed before switching to a low diamond to the queen. Schwartz decided to allow West to hold the trick, since another spade ruff by the defense would give him control of the play.

West played a low spade at trick three, East ruffed again and tried a low club. Dummy's ace won the trick. A club ruff to the closed hand was next, followed by a trump to the ace, and a trump to the queen picking up the last trump. Declarer now played the ♠J, taking the marked ruffing finesse against West. Schwartz later conceded a diamond to make exactly nine tricks for plus 140.

tion. As a result she and Beth bid the hand to a heart game, making with an overtrick, even though the partnership had only 21 high card points between them. At the other table, Deas' counterpart decided to pass, as would most players. As a result, the Bjerkan East-West pair bought the contract for two spades, making. That was plus 110 to go with plus 650 — 13 IMPs.

Happy New Year! (the Mid-Atlantic likes to be first)

The folks who bring you the ACBL's biggest and best regionals are proud to invite you to two exciting and unusual tournaments this winter.

December 26-Jan. 1 — Charleston, SC. Spend the winter holidays in one of North America's most charming and tourist-friendly cities. Lots of bridge, mild weather (average high: 60 degrees) and fine dining are guaranteed. A wonderful rate ($84) includes two-room accommodations, a FREE cooked-to-order breakfast each morning, a FREE cocktail party each afternoon, and lots of other amenities. Site: Embassy Suites, North Charleston, (843) 747-1882. Contacts: Spencer Hurd, (843) 577-2919, ctown2002@yahoo.com and Lindsey Butler, (843) 886-8813.

January 13-19 — Roanoke, VA. We haven't hosted a tournament in the Blue Ridge Mountains for more than two decades, but we'll return in style. The host committee has been planning this event for years. Please see the brochure in your registration bag or take one from the regional information table. Site: The historic Hotel Roanoke & Conference Center, (540) 985-5900. Contact: Lynn Rattinger, (540) 776-9116, lynnrattinger@cs.com.

Slow Play

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents – and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time are subject to penalty. In general, pairs who are rarely late will be warned while pairs who are habitually tardy and/or pay no attention to time limits will be penalized.

Junior coupons

Junior coupons are good for entry to any event for just $6 per session. Coupons will be available only to ACBL members who are residents of Zone 2 (North America including Bermuda) who are either (1) 21 years of age or younger or (2) full-time students between 22 and 25 years of age. Full-time students must offer proof of eligibility prior to purchasing their entry.
